

Opening Reception 1 July | Exhibition through 28 August

MICAËLA GALLERY presents COLD+HOT 2010, an annual showcase of the work of selected national and international glass sculptors in a single exhibition. Featured artists are Peter Bremers, Kathleen Elliot, Michael Janis, Michelle Knox, Weston Lambert, Carol Lawton, Silvia Levenson, JP Long, Susan Longini, Thomas Scoon, Carmen Spera, and Kristiina Uslar, who collectively demonstrate the expansive versatility of glass as a sculpture medium in terms of material, color, and form, alongside the video work of Tim Tate and photography of Mark Leibowitz.

The exhibition title, COLD+HOT 2010, derives from the distinct processes used by glass artists for millennia - sculpting its form, or cold-working it while cold (actually, at room temperature), very hard and brittle; and working hot glass, shaping it while molten, using blowing and/or kiln forming techniques at temperatures ranging from 1700 to over 3000 degrees.

Carol Lawton earned her Master of Arts degree at California State University at San Jose, majoring in ceramics and photography. In 1983, she received a National Endowment for Arts Fellowship for her explorations in pinhole photography. She worked primarily in photography until she began her glass education in 2002. She studied glass fabrication techniques at the Corning School of Glass in New York. She also studied in the Czech Republic and at the Bullseye Glass Factory.

Lawton currently teaches glass casting and related glass-working techniques at Ohlone College in Fremont, California.
